We need your support

We are very aware of the amount of Sugar Arts Activities and Classes that are available in Texas and beyond. There are a lot of opportunities to spend your decorating dollars. ICES is YOUR Organization. In order for us to continue to offer events and classes, we need your help and participation whenever possible. Our demonstrators come and freely share their knowledge with us. In return we offer their classes and/or supplies to help them defray the expenses they incur traveling to our events. Help us by spreading the word about ICES and the Texas ICES events.
